

About Brandon Elefante

Our Speakers

Brandon Elefante

Brandon Elefante - City Council Member, District 8, has served the residents of Aiea, Pearl City and Waipahu since taking office on November 12, 2014 and has been at the forefront of many issues important to island families.

From transportation and traffic-related issues to making sure our neighborhoods are strong and secure, Brandon is committed to working hard to represent our community by continuing to advocate for residents of City Council District 8, while also taking a hands-on approach to assisting constituents who face challenges navigating through city government.

Brandon currently serves as chairman of the Committee on Public Health, Safety and Welfare and serves as Vice Chair for the Oahu Metropolitan Planning Organization.

He is also a member of the Committees on:

*Transportation
Public Works and Sustainability
Parks and Customer Services
Executive Matters and Legal Affairs*
