The Sisters of the Pacific-U.S. Province of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary discussed "bold and forward looking proposals" and elected three provincial councilors at their provincial chapter, March 7-9, at the St. Anthony Retreat Center in Kalihi Valley.

The theme of the chapter, or general meeting, was "We are ready and willing, we come to do your will." Attending were three of the congregation's international leaders: superior general Sister Emperatriz Arrobo, vicar general Sister Aurora LaGuarda and the major superior of Asia Sister Ratna Kumalasari.

The proposals, following the community's call to "create a new face of the Congregation," focused on four priority areas: congregational responsibilities and relationships, mission and ministry, community life, and resources for sustainability.

Guiding the process was Father Johnathan Hurrell, provincial of the U.S. province of the Sacred Hearts Fathers and Brothers.
